

LINDA MOSLEY | PARALEGAL

Linda is a paralegal whose wealth of experience and unique problem-solving abilities make her an invaluable resource for MPS Law's real estate group.

Linda has over 20 years experience in commercial real estate and is well-versed in all aspects of the job. She interacts directly with clients and is often the first point of contact. She handles all facets of real estate purchases and sales, preparing checklists and timelines, performing due diligence, title clearance and survey review, and coordinating all phases of transactions for successful closings and includes the recent closing of a multi-state disposition involving over 100 sites. She also has considerable experience in tax exemption filings and petitions for division and consolidation, and worked on transfer tax issues related to a real estate disposition involving one of the largest values in Chicago history.
