

MAX FRAZIER | ASSOCIATE

Commercial Litigation

Max is an associate in our commercial litigation practice group. He has extensive experience as a business litigation attorney, specifically in cases that involve breach of contract, business disputes, commercial evictions, debt collection, adversarial bankruptcy proceedings, custodial receiverships, insurance defense, and premise liability matters.

Max has represented and advised a variety of clients, including businesses, banks, developers, insurance carriers, and individuals in both healthcare and finance matters. He has also participated in casework involving risk management and malpractice defense, and has experience in corporate formation and operating agreements and by-laws.

Outside of work, Max enjoys playing chess and competitive baseball, and practicing martial arts.
