

WENDY K. WIDMAYER | PARALEGAL

Trust and Estates, Corporate Law

Wendy works as a paralegal on estate planning, estate and trust administration, and related business matters in MPS's Trusts and Estates practice. Working closely with the partners, she assists with drafting trusts, wills, powers of attorney, probate documents and filings, client and advisor communications, and administering trusts and asset transfers.

With more than 30 years of experience, Wendy particularly excels in the close relationships she has built with clients. Every interaction includes a personal touch and dedicated customer service. High net worth families and individuals rely on Wendy to assure them that their planning and administration activities are handled smoothly, efficiently, and promptly.

Outside of the office, Wendy enjoys spending time with her family.
