Lorrette is an accomplished litigator with extensive experience handling complex cases and resolving disputes. Known for her skilled courtroom presence, Lorrette has represented clients in both state and federal courts across the United States. Her background covers a broad range of litigation tasks, including drafting pleadings, conducting depositions for dozens of witnesses, and negotiating settlements.

Prior to beginning her practice, Lorrette clerked for a trial court judge in the New York State Supreme Court, gaining in-depth exposure to employment law, real estate law, and medical malpractice.

Beyond her legal expertise, Lorrette brings intellectual curiosity and creativity to her work across a wide range of subjects. Earlier in her career she worked at a leading digital advertising agency, developing creative strategies on multiple multi-million-dollar corporate accounts.

Lorrette received full merit-based academic scholarships for both her undergraduate and law school education.
