Jordan Stewart is an associate attorney at MPS where he advises clients and resolves matters relating to commercial financing and a variety of real estate transactions. He received his J.D. from the University of Illinois College of Law, where he was a dean's scholar.

In addition to his academic studies, he served as the Membership Editor for the Journal of Law Technology and Policy; the Vice President of the Jewish Law Student Association; and he competed on the University of Illinois Trial Team. Jordan was also a law clerk for MPS throughout his third year of law school after joining the firm as a Summer Associate in the summer of 2024.

Before attending law school, Jordan graduated summa cum laude from the College of William and Mary as a double major in Government and Psychology.

In his free time, he enjoys playing volleyball, golf, soccer, and volunteering at his local animal shelter.
